

Project/Initiative sheet of the Terra Congo interface (translated from the original REDD+ registry entry in French)

Activity type	REDD+ project
Name	Integrated REDD pilot project around the Luki Biosphere Reserve in Mayombe forest
Project leader	World Wide Fund For Nature (WWF)
Main contact person	Laurent Nsenga lnsenga@wwfcarpo.org
Institutional partners	Ministry of Environment, Conservation of Nature and Tourism
Technical partners	ONFinternational
Financial partners	Congo Basin Forest Fund (CBFF)
National status	Ratified
Project start date and Project end date	January 2012/ 2032
Administrative location	Territories of Muanda, Seke-Banza and Lukula, Province of Bas-Congo
Budget (CAPEX)	€2,400,000
Financing status (CAPEX)	Funded
Carbon finance and other ongoing income (OPEX)	Financing required
Link with the national strategy (principal themes tackled within the 30 themes from the Strategy Construction)	The project concerns several themes from the national strategy construction: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Community forestry and formal artisanal logging 2. Permanent production forest 3. Afforestation/Reforestation & carbon stock enhancement 4. Environmental services promotion and NTFPs 5. Increased productivity of subsistence agriculture and sedentary farmers 6. Increased productivity of small agriculture and small commercial livestock farming 7. Agroforestry 8. Optimization of biomass energy activities 9. Forest micro-zoning 10. Land tenure securitization and harmonization 11. Land use management 12. Good governance, anticorruption and public efficiency 13. Law application and enforcement 14. Peasant and rural organization
Description	The project aims to put in place a Sustainable Development Model around the Luki biosphere reserve in the Mayombe forest, integrated in the national REDD+ strategy, in order to reduce deforestation, provide goods and services to the local communities and to be taken as an example for replication in other DRC sites with a strong demography development. The projet will concern five principal activities: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Sustainable Development Model implementation and integrated governance system enforcement (local, provincial and national); 2. MRV system implementation; 3. Payments for Environmental services; 4. Public-private partnership for carbon credits; 5. Extension possibilities assesment.
Remarks
Relevant documents
Link to the registry website	